

East Cheshire

Combined Training Group

ECCTG Newsletter Winter 2011

www.ecctg.com

EAST CHESHIRE COMBINED TRAINING SUMMER GAMES!

On Sunday 20th May 2012 at Somerford Park Farm

Come and celebrate this great year for British sport with separate dressage, show jumping and 'eventing' (combined training competitions) With many medals on offer and a truly international feel, this competition promises to be a real spectacular – one not to be missed!!

For a full schedule please visit the website: www.ecctg.com and help us make it an event to remember.

Training

This seasons training dates have got off to a great start with a good mix of training across the disciplines there is something for everyone.

Training dates in the diary for the coming months include Clear round XC at Arclid Stud hall, and a number of Showjumping training evenings at Crossmere farm, these dates fill up quickly so be sure to get your name down asap. For more details on all training dates throughout the year keep your eye on the website.

New Website

A new look ECCTG website has been created so make sure you log onto the website regularly to be kept up to date and be amongst the first to visit the new site. Comments/errors/requests to webmaster@ecctg.com please!

Area 20 Qualifiers

The Festival of the Horse(Hunter Trails) ran on the 13th May - keep an eye on the website for results. The area dressage, due to take place on the same day has been postponed.

Good luck to all those representing ECCTG at these events.

Area 20 hold qualifiers in all disciplines so if you would like be part of a team representing ECCTG in 2012 then please contact the Chef d'equipe for the discipline(s) you are interested in ASAP

Chef d'equipes can be found in your new 2012-2013 programme

Dont forget for the most up to date ECCTG news and for reminders of events and training find us on facebook just search "ECCTG".

The ECCTG Committee